MUR # 6775

COMPLAINT

1. Stop Hillary PAC, through counsel, hereby brings this complaint before the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") seeking an immediate investigation and enforcement action against Hillary Rodham Clinton, Hillary Clinton for President, Friends of Hillary, and Ready for Hillary PAC for direct and serious violations of campaign finance law.

Complainant

2. Stop Hillary PAC is a Hybrid Political Action Committee. The committee is registered under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "FECA"). 2 U.S.C. § 433; Carey v. FEC, 791 F. Supp. 2d 121 (D.D.C. 2011), Stipulated Order and Consent Judgment (August 19, 2011).

Respondents

3. "Hillary Clinton for President" was the Principal Campaign Committee of the 2008 presidential candidate Hillary Rodham Clinton ("Clinton"). The committee registered under the Federal Election Campaign Act. 2 U.S.C. § 433. The committee filed a termination report on February 4, 2013 which was approved by the FEC on February 26, 2013.
4. "Friends of Hillary" is the Principal Campaign Committee of Clinton for the office of United States Senator from New York. The committee is registered under the Federal Election Campaign Act. 2 U.S.C. § 433.
5. "Ready for Hillary PAC" is an Independent Expenditure Only Political Action Committee. The committee is registered under the Federal Election Campaign Act. 2 U.S.C. § 433; SpeechNow.org v. FEC, 599 F.3d 686 (D.C. Cir. 2010).

Factual Allegations

6. Time reports that Ready for Hillary PAC has used the email list of Hillary Clinton for President (the "List"). Exhibit A. Seth Bringman, a representative of Ready for Hillary PAC, confirmed with Time that Ready for Hillary PAC used the List for the purpose of connecting with Clinton's past supporters. Id.
7. On or about January 5, 2014, Ready for Hillary PAC emailed the List with a "from" address and "reply to" address of info@hillaryclinton.com. In the email, Ready for Hillary PAC tells recipients "Now is the time to get our support for Hillary organized and ready for 2016" and offers free "I'm Ready for Hillary" bumper stickers. Exhibit A and B.
8. The website HillaryClinton.com is owned and paid for by Friends of Hillary and, upon information and belief, was previously owned and operated by Hillary Clinton for President.

Exhibit C and D. Trilogy Interactive LLC manages and hosts the website HillaryClinton.com on behalf of Friends of Hillary. Exhibit D.

9. While Hillary Clinton for President filed a termination report on February 4, 2013, approved by the FEC on February 26, 2013, Friends of Hillary is still an active authorized committee of Clinton and has not filed a termination report. Exhibit E and F.
10. Ready for Hillary PAC operates with the stated goal of encouraging Clinton to run for president in 2016. Exhibit G. Ready for Hillary PAC supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and raises funds in unlimited amounts and makes independent expenditures consistent with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit's decision in SpeechNow v. FEC. Exhibit H and I. During the period of January 1, 2013 through June 30, 2013, Ready for Hillary PAC has raised a total contribution amount in excess of one million dollars. Exhibit J.
11. Ready for Hillary PAC indicates that if Clinton decides to run for office, Ready for Hillary PAC intends to make its list of supporters available to Clinton. Exhibit K.
12. Adam Parkhomenko, who worked on Clinton's 2008 presidential campaign, now serves as the Executive Director of Ready for Hillary PAC and Ready for Hillary PAC is also staffed with other Clinton advisers. Exhibit K.

Campaign Finance Violations

13. While the FEC has stated that a committee may donate, sell, rent or trade its contributor list to other committees and organizations, such transactions are still subject to other applicable requirements of the FECA and FEC regulations. AO 1979-03. Clinton and/or her authorized committee, Friends of Hillary, clearly owns the List as evidenced by both the "from" address and "reply to" address of info@hillaryclinton.com.
14. Clinton has conveyed rights related to the List to Ready for Hillary PAC, including the right to send emails to the List and the right to use her authorized committee's email address as the from and reply-to-address, or at least cloak themselves in the appearance of her authorized committee's email address. The only reasonable interpretation of these actions is the conveyance and use of these and other authorized committee's, and/or Clinton's, intellectual property is in furtherance of the stated goals of Ready for Hillary PAC. Even if Friends of Hillary and/or Clinton are compensated for such conveyance, this economic element makes it no less in furtherance of those goals. This, then, is an overt, knowing act, in furtherance of an effort to see Clinton elected to Federal office.
15. A candidate is considered an individual who seeks nomination for election to Federal office. 2 U.S.C. § 431(2). An individual shall be deemed to seek nomination where such individual has given her consent to another to receive contributions, or make expenditures on behalf of such individual, and if such person has received such contributions aggregating in excess of $5,000 or has made such expenditures aggregating in excess of $5,000. 2 U.S.C. § 431(2)(b), emphasis added.

16. Clinton's authorization of the use of her List by Ready for Hillary PAC is openly encouraging and supporting the activity of Ready for Hillary PAC, which in turn openly encourages Clinton to run for President, which has raised contributions in excess of one million dollars. This authorization and related activity clearly indicates Clinton is actually, or apparently, or by operation of law, an individual seeking nomination for election to Federal office. Clinton herself has not filed a disavowal notice with the FEC or publically disavowed the campaign activity conducted by Ready for Hillary PAC.
17. A candidate may authorize a political committee, other than her principle campaign committee, under 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1) to receive contributions or make expenditures on behalf of the candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 431(6). By providing authorization to use the List, Clinton has in effect authorized Ready for Hillary PAC to receive contributions from her own discrete list of supporters on her behalf and on behalf of a candidacy for President, and should properly identify the committee as an authorized committee of Clinton.
18. Clinton's authorization of Ready for Hillary PAC is, however, in violation of campaign finance law. A candidate may not designate a political committee as an authorized committee where that committee supports more than one candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1) and (3). Clinton is not permitted to authorize Ready for Hillary PAC as an authorized committee because Ready for Hillary PAC indicates on its FEC Form 1 that it supports or opposes more than one federal candidate and because it operates as a super PAC accepting contributions outside the scope of the FECA.
19. The FECA prohibits the following individuals and organizations from making contributions or expenditures to campaigns for federal elections: corporations; labor organizations; federal government contractors; and foreign nationals. 11 C.F.R. § 114.2; § 115; §110.20(b). Ready for Hillary PAC accepts unlimited contributions from "individuals, corporations, and other organizations." Exhibit I. While Ready for Hillary PAC has not yet filed its 2013 year end report with the FEC, Ready for Hillary PAC appears to have not yet reported one single corporate contribution despite its intention to operate as an independent expenditure committee. The FEC should conduct a close review of the individual contributor employer and occupation data in order to determine if Ready for Hillary PAC has received contributions on behalf of Clinton and/or her authorized committee in violation of FECA prohibitions. Ready for Hillary PAC's receipt of any contributions, on behalf of Clinton, from prohibited entities would violate these prohibitions.
20. The FECA also places legal limits on the amount of contributions individuals and groups can contribute to candidates. 11 C.F.R. § 110.1; §110.2; and § 110.3. Ready for Hillary PAC's receipt of contributions, on behalf of Clinton, constitutes excessive contributions in violation of the campaign finance limits. For example, among others, Ready for Hillary PAC received a contribution from Arts PAC in the amount of $25,000. Exhibit L, Ready for Hillary FEC Form 3X, Image#13941302166.
21. Public communications authorized by a candidate and/or paid for by a candidate or her campaign committee must include a disclaimer notice identifying who paid for the message. 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(b)(1). Clinton has failed to use proper disclaimers on communications sent by Ready for Hillary PAC on Clinton's behalf. Ready for Hillary PAC's email - including the email sent to the List from Friends of Hillary's email account - does not indicate it was paid for and authorized by Clinton. Exhibit B. All communications by Ready for Hillary PAC, instead, should contain Clinton's full name and should contain a statement that the communications are authorized by Clinton.

22. Further, a disclaimer notice is required where a public communications is authorized by a candidate but not paid for by the candidate or her campaign committee. 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(b)(2). Even if the FEC does not consider Ready for Hillary PAC as Clinton's authorized committee, and Clinton is not thereby paying for the public communications of Ready for Hillary PAC, Clinton's authorization of the use of the List by Ready for Hillary PAC is at the least an authorization of the email communication to the List. Ready for Hillary PAC should have included a disclaimer notice on the email sent to the List indicating that Clinton authorized the email.
23. Where a public communication is not authorized by a candidate or her campaign committee, the disclaimer must identify who paid for the message, state that it was not authorized by any candidate or the candidate's committee and list the address, telephone number of who paid for the communication. 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(b)(3). Upon information and belief, Ready for Hillary PAC's email does not contain the statement that the email was in fact not authorized by a candidate, or her campaign committee, nor does it provide that Ready for Hillary PAC paid for the communication. Exhibit B.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, Stop Hillary PAC requests that the FEC conduct an investigation into whether Clinton's authorization of the use of her List by Ready for Hillary PAC constitutes violations of federal campaign finance laws, impose sanctions appropriate to these violations and take such further actions as may be appropriate.

Hillary Clinton Campaign Rents Email List to Pro-Hillary Super PAC

Zeke J Miller @zekejmiller

579 Comments

Hillary Clinton's 2008 presidential campaign has rented its email list to Ready for Hillary, the super PAC laying the groundwork for a potential second attempt at the White House.

On Sunday, the group emailed the Clinton list offering free "I'm Ready for Hillary" bumper stickers, but unlike dozens of recent emails from the group offering swag, this one had the return address info@hillaryclinton.com.

Seth Bringman, a spokesman for the super PAC, told TIME on Sunday that "Ready for Hillary rented the hillaryclinton.com email list to connect with her past supporters."

It's not uncommon for defeated political campaigns to rent out their email lists to causes their sponsors support. Several other groups, including the President Barack Obama's campaign and EMILY's List, have previously rented out Clinton's list.

Super PACs are not allowed to directly coordinate with candidates or campaigns, but because Clinton is not a declared candidate there is nothing improper about the list rental. But it is the latest indication of how seriously Clinton is considering another bid for the Oval Office. Clinton has said she will make a decision on whether to mount another campaign this year, and already a web of outside groups have formed to lay the groundwork for her if she decides to run, many with the support of top aides from the 2008 campaign and even the assistance of several top Obama operatives.

Clinton's campaign filed a termination report with the Federal Election Commission last year after she finished paying off her 2008 campaign debts and left the State Department. It is not clear from public records who maintains control of the email list.

HILLARY CLINTON FOR PRESIDENT
1900 M STREET NW SUITE 500
WASHINGTON, DC 20036

IDENTIFICATION NUMBER: C00431569

REFERENCE: TERMINATION REPORT (01/01/2013 - 01/31/2013)

Dear Treasurer:

Your committee's filing has been accepted as a termination. Your committee is no longer required to file reports on a periodic basis. If your committee has any remaining debts or residual funds, you are still responsible for settling all outstanding obligations and/or disposing of any residual funds. (11 CFR § 102.3(a)(1)) In addition, 2 U.S.C. § 432(d) and Sections 102.9(c) and 104.14(b)(3) of the Commission's Regulations require that you maintain your records and copies of reports for inspection for at least three (3) years. You may also be required to respond to Commission requests for information regarding your committee's federal election activity and previously filed reports.

If your committee again becomes active in federal elections, it will be required to re-register with the Commission in accordance with the Federal Election Campaign Act and applicable Regulations. Your committee will be treated as a new entity by the Commission and should register as a new committee on FEC FORM 1, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §§ 432(g) and 433(a).

If you have any questions concerning your status and requirements, please contact the Reports Analysis Division on the toll-free number, (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5 to reach the Reports Analysis Division). My local number is (202) 694-1135.

SUBMIT*— Menu*About Ready for Hillary

Started by two volunteers in January 2013, Ready for Hillary quickly became a nationwide grassroots movement encouraging the former Secretary of State to run for president in 2016. Now, with over one million supporters and over 25,000 grassroots donors, Ready for Hillary is the vehicle through which Americans of all walks of life are expressing their support for a potential Hillary run. Every day, thousands more people are joining this movement, signing the petition encouraging Hillary to run, and showing her that if she decides to run for president, she will have a grassroots army of supporters behind her who are ready to help her win.

We are Ready for Hillary!

Ready for Hillary is an independent political action committee registered with the Federal Election Commission. Ready for Hillary's spending is independent, and we do not make contributions to, or coordinate our spending with, any candidates or political parties.

Re: Form 1, Statement of Organization - Unlimited Contributions

To Whom It May Concern:

This committee intends to make independent expenditures, and consistent with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit's decision on SpeechNow v. FEC, it therefore intends to raise funds in unlimited amounts. This committee will not use those funds to make contributions, whether direct, in-kind, or via coordinated communications to federal candidates or committees.

Pro-Hillary Clinton super PAC posts substantial 2013 fundraising haul

Posted by

CNN's Dan Merica

Washington (CNN) – Who says you need a candidate to raise a bundle of cash?

Ready for Hillary, the grassroots Super PAC urging former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton to run for president in 2016, raised over $4 million from roughly 33,000 donors in 2013. Seth Bringham, the group's spokesman, said Tuesday.

In a memo obtained by CNN, the group touts a "groundswell" of support in the second half of 2013: the number of new supporters nearly quadrupled and donations to the group doubled from earlier in the year.

This comes as Clinton, the front-runner for the Democratic nomination in 2016, has yet to declare if she will even run for the office.

"We have exceeded our goals and are ahead of schedule in raising the funds necessary to build a grass-roots army that can be activated the moment Hillary makes a decision," said Ready for Hillary Executive Director Adam Parkhomenko. "This movement is unprecedented – not because of our staff but because of our supporters – and we will continue to build capacity across the country to put Hillary in the strongest position possible should she decide to run."

Parkhomenko, who worked for Clinton's failed 2008 campaign against now President Barack Obama, went on to say that the money raised will go toward "list-building, digital advertising and on-the-ground organizing" with the goal to ensure that if Clinton runs, "she will have as many supporters as possible lined up from the beginning ready to help her win."

The average contribution was $82, according to the group, with 98% of donations coming in at $100 or less.

Nearly 18,000 of these donations, according to the group, came from "low-dollar, grass-roots" organizing events where Clinton supporters have come together in cities across the country and paid $20.16 to attend the gathering.

Ready for Hillary was organized early in 2013, shortly after Clinton left the State Department. It is staffed by a number of Clinton loyalists like Tracy Seff and Craig Smith, both advisers with Clinton ties.

The group has long pledged that its focus is on collecting data, which includes everything from contact information to issue interest, from Clinton supporters around the country. A representative from the group said Ready for Hillary will not be buying TV ads with the money it has raised and instead will invest in on-the-ground organizing and other ways to help grow its database.

"The organization has a very specific mission," Seif said in December. "Period, end of sentence."

The group hopes if Clinton decides to run for office - a decision she has said she will make sometime in 2014 - those names could be a solid base of early supporters. The plan, according to a representative from the group, would be to make the list available to the campaign through a third-party vendor. If the campaign wanted the names, it would have the option to rent the list, pay a fair market value for it or swap names with Ready for Hillary.

To gather data, Ready for Hillary has held multiple events in states like Florida, Michigan, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and California. In the near future, the group plans to hold events in Minnesota, Massachusetts, Missouri, North Carolina and Arizona.

The group said on Thursday that donations came from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and from military service members abroad.
